This will be followed by a tutorial of how to play the game, and the basic controls. If you press the START button during these demonstrations, you will return to the title screen.

Race Mode

Race against the clock, to see how quickly you can reach the goal. You can practise, race against two computer players or against another human player.

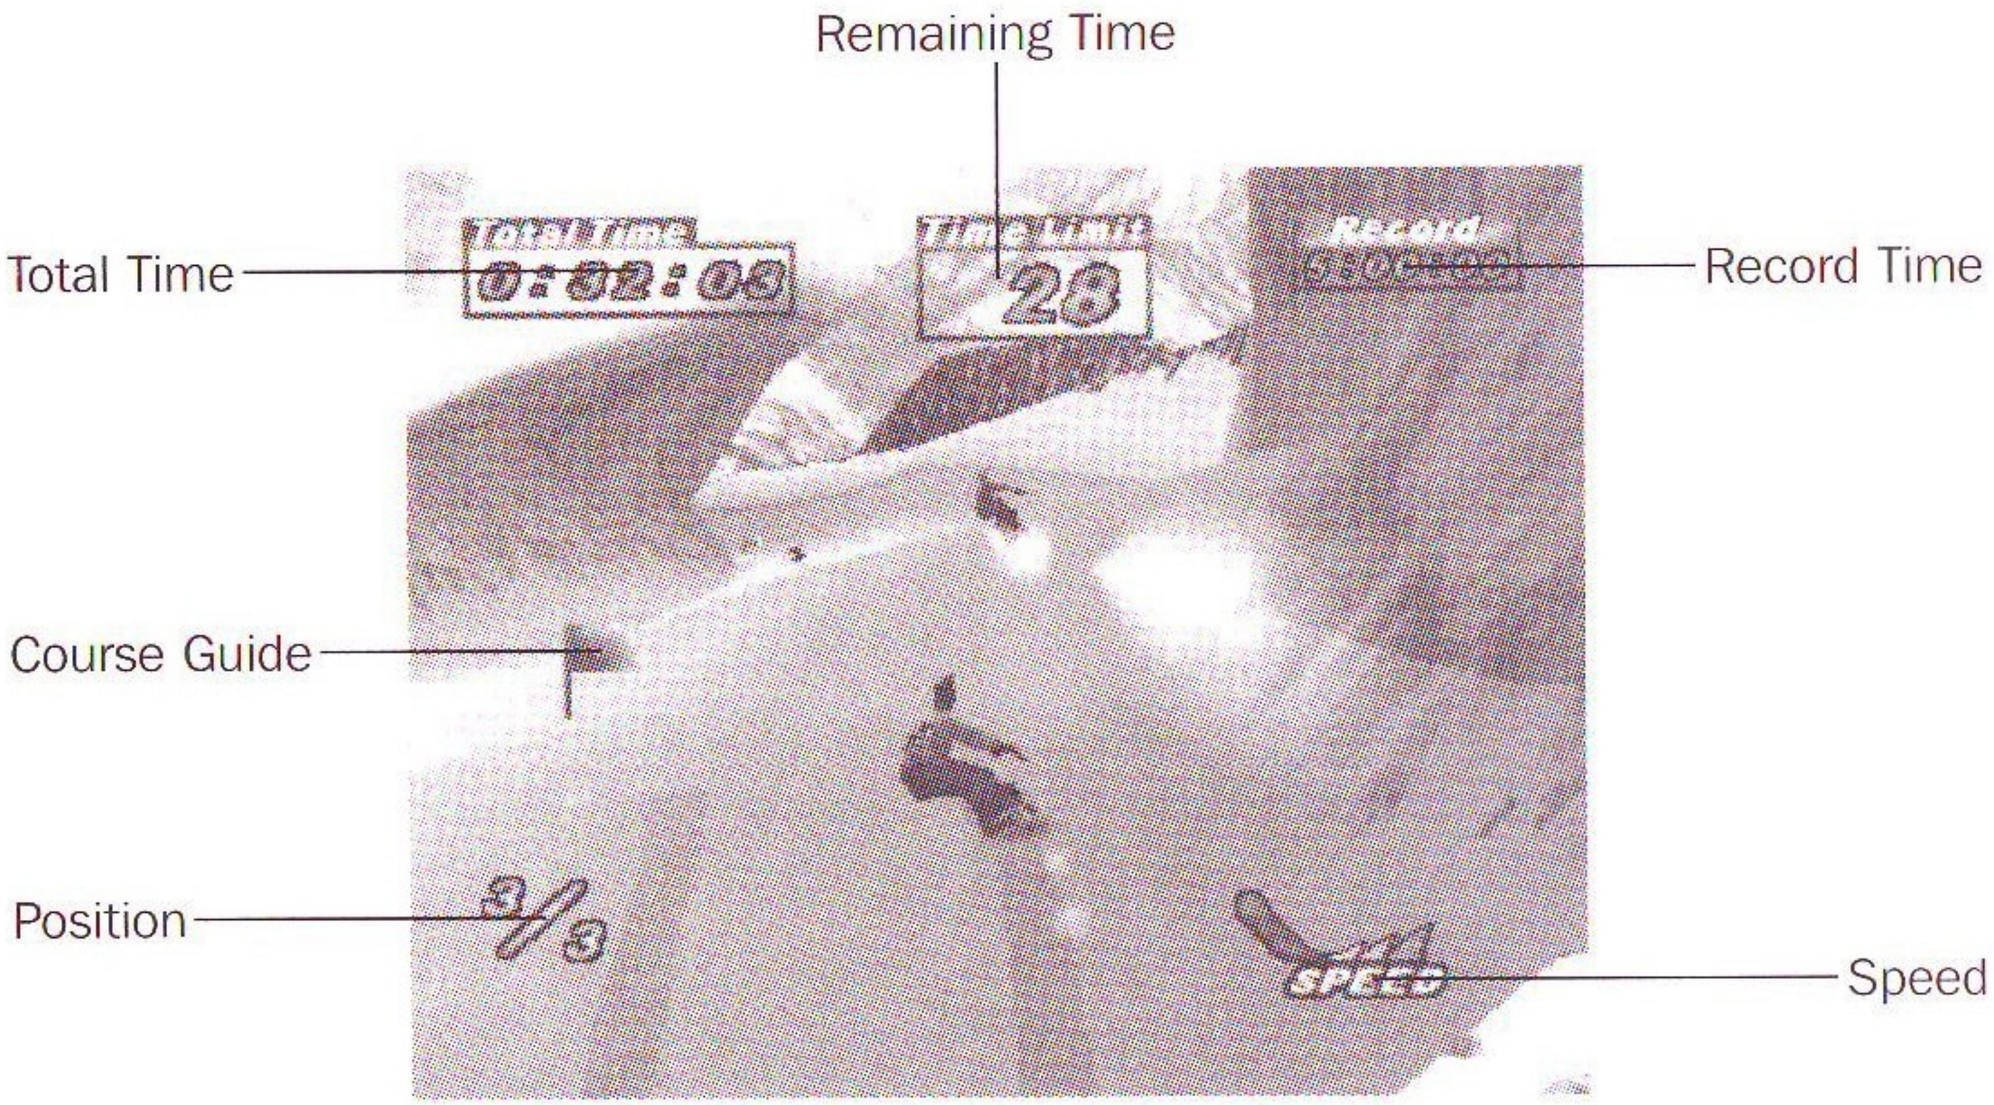
Select a course, and then your desired play mode. Once you have done this, select the character you wish to use. Use the left and right directional buttons to pick your running type and up and down directional buttons to change the colour of your clothing. Once you have selected your character, head out onto the course. Until this point, Race and Trick Mode proceed in the same way.



Reading the Screen

Total Time

Your current total time.

Remaining Time

Current time remaining. You must reach the goal before this reaches zero. If you pass a checkpoint, then you will receive some more time.

Record Time

The best time on course so far.

Course Guide

If course guides are switched on in options, then flags will appear on the course. Use these to gauge the route you should be taking.

Speed

These five blocks display your speed. The more that are lit, the faster you are going.

Position

Shows your current position in the field.

Race Mode Pointers

- Even if you follow all the flags perfectly, you will not necessarily come out with a record-breaking time. Try and find the best route to the top of the pack!
- On pack-snow sections, you will accelerate quickly and braking (edge) will not be as effective. On fresh snow, you will quickly lose speed. When running on fresh snow, use the △ button to kick the ground and increase speed.

Race Mode Goals

- The point of Race Mode is to get to the goal as fast as possible, before the time limit reaches zero.
- Give careful consideration to taking the best line on the course, and how best to corner and aim for the top times!

PLAYING THE GAME – TRICK MODE

The ⊗ button symbol in the bottom left corner lights up when you cross a "trick point". When this happens, jump and perform a "grab". There are various different grabs you can perform. Grab as much air as you can, and pull off some big scoring moves.

Reading the Screen

Total Points

Your total current trick points.

Remaining Time

Current time remaining. Decreases as you make your run, but by earning trick points you will receive more time. Your run ends when this reaches zero.

Points Record

The current highest points for this course.

Course Guide

If course guides are switched on in Options, then arrows will appear on the course. These show you where the jumps are during Trick Mode, so use these to prepare yourself to make some points. However, these arrows do not necessarily appear at every possible jump location.

Speed

These five blocks display your speed. The more that are lit, the faster you are going.

⊗ Button Mark

When this lights up it marks a jump, "trick point."

Trick Mode Extra Controls

Jump Controls

- You can perform a grab during a jump in Race Mode as well.

VERSUS BATTLES

In Snowboard Racer, during both Race Mode and Trick Mode it is possible to play a versus battle against a second human player. After selecting a course, choose "Versus", select your character and head onto the course. You can then enjoy a speed battle, or a trick battle.

- In order to create a more pitched battle, course guides will not appear during a versus battle.
